INTRODUCTION

This book includes a listing and brief summary of scholarships with which we are familiar. While there are a number of scholarships in this book, it is not intended to be a list of all scholarships available to students. We have attempted to list all local scholarships, which are available in the Metro-East area. More scholarships are added each year, so keep checking online. For a more complete listing of the regional, state, and national scholarships, we recommend the following FREE scholarship search on the internet: www.fastweb.com.

While we believe that all of the information contained herein is accurate at the time of publication, we will not take responsibility for incorrect information or missed deadlines. This information will be updated as necessary.

AES Engineering Corporation Scholarship – This scholarship is available to high school seniors. Submission of an essay on the specified topic is required. Other scholarship guidelines as well as the application can be found at <http://www.aesengineers.com/scholarships.htm>

Anderson Auxiliary Scholarship – This scholarship is for those pursuing careers in the Healthcare Industry. Information is received the Student Services office each spring and is emailed out to all seniors as soon as it is available.

American Association of Blacks in Energy -- Through the work of various members of the AABE National Scholarship Committee, Chapter Presidents, Regional Directors, local Scholarship Committees and many AABE volunteers nationwide, the AABE Scholarship Program is advertised and applications are solicited from eligible candidates nation-wide. AABE local chapters review the applications received and select local scholarship winners, from which the top ranked candidates are forwarded to the National Scholarship Committee for consideration of regional and national awards. The American Association of Blacks in Energy is a professional organization of African Americans in the energy industry. Through its scholarship Program, AABE seeks to help increase the number of African Americans, Hispanics and Native Americans (underrepresented minorities) in energy related fields. By doing so, we help our nation address a critical need and a challenge to our future economic vitality in the world market. More information as well as the application can be found at <http://www.aabe.org/index.php?component=pages&id=1419>

American Chemical Society Scholarship – African American, Native American, and Hispanic students planning to pursue full-time study in a chemical related field with outstanding records and a desire to pursue a career in the chemical sciences may apply. American Society of Military Comptrollers – Applicant must be a graduating high school senior in the final half of his/her school year, or a high school graduate within six months of the application deadline. Each year the Illinois Land of Lincoln Chapter of American Society of Military Comptrollers (ASMC) offers graduating seniors an opportunity to compete for scholarship awards. In prior years, applicants were limited to students entering a field of study directly related to financial/resource management related disciplines (i.e. accounting, finance, auditing, financial management, etc.). This year we are opening our local scholarship up to students entering any field of study. In addition to this, the top two applications are sent on to the National committee for consideration for their scholarship as well. However, the National committee will still have the field of study restrictions in place. So while a student may win at the local level, they may not be eligible for the National scholarship. The reverse of that is true as well, just because a student doesn't win at the local level, doesn't mean they won't be submitted to the National level for consideration. Anyone that applies for the scholarship MUST contact an ASMC member for sponsorship. The ASMC member will be able to provide them with the application and scholarship details they will need. Applicants must be entering a field of study directly related to financial/resource management (such as business administration, economics, accounting, finance). Applications that do not fall within these fields will not be considered. Awards include one $3000 scholarship, four $2000 scholarships, and four $1000 scholarships. If awarded, applicant may re-apply for the following three academic years, if qualified. Applications must have an ASMC chapter endorsement letter. The application would be located out on the ASMC National Website <http://www.asmonline.org/> under "Awards/Recognition" and then "Submit a Nomination" Or go directly to it by clicking on <https://asmc.nonprofitcms.org/a/Organizations/main/Home>. You can also use this website to locate a local chapter for the required nomination. Under the Membership tab you will find "locate a chapter", then scroll down to find the state and chapter closest to you. Paper applications may become available. If paper copies are available, you will be notified by email.

Arch City Granite and Marble Scholarship – Arch City Granite and Marble, Inc. awards an annual $1,000 scholarship in order to give back to the community. This may include an acceptance letter, a class schedule, or another enrollment document. Documents must be dated and include the student's name and university. Student's must be enrolled in an undergraduate program for the Fall semester. More information as well as the application can be found at <https://www.torhoermanlaw.com/scholarship/>

United States Senate William Randolph Hearst Scholarship – High school juniors and seniors are eligible to apply for this program. The first phase of this program brings two students from each state to Washington, D.C., March 5-12, 2016, to participate in the United States Senate Youth Program (USSYP). Delegates will be immersed in Washington activities throughout their week-long stay.

Visits to the Senate, House of Representatives, Supreme Court, and Pentagon are interspersed with time spent at various Smithsonian museums. Delegates will hear policy addresses by senators, cabinet members, officials of various executive departments, and others. The William Randolph Hearst Foundation will pay all expenses for the week, including transportation, hotel, and meals.

The second phase awards both recipients a college scholarship of $5,000.00. The Hearst Foundation requires that to obtain scholarship funds, a student must, within two years after high school graduation, enroll at an accredited U. S. college or university. The student is encouraged to include courses in government or related subjects to his or her undergraduate program.

A letter from the state superintendent, brochure, and application concerning the USSYP and Hearst Scholarship is sent to high schools in August. Applications can be obtained from guidance counselors or by choosing the application link in the Resource Box at right. Choose the brochure link for a description of the program and associated rules. More information can be found at <http://www.isbe.net/special/html/hearst.htm>. The deadline to early October.
